Fronheiser Pools Professionals Complete BioGuard's H2Know Advanced Chemical Training Course

Bally, PA – (5-Apr-11) Fronheiser Pools – a leader in swimming pool construction and spa installation in Southeastern Pennsylvania since 1965 – continues its focus on education and providing expert pool and spa care. Fronheiser Pools professionals Joy Fait, Joe Miller, Denise Huber, Bob Sroka and George Keiser recently completed an advanced BioGuard H₂Know training program in Somerset, NJ (exclusive to BioGuard Platinum Dealers like Fronheiser Pools) to become certified water technicians.

BioGuard – recognized as one of the nation's premier suppliers of pool and spa-care products – offers its H₂Know advanced chemical training course throughout the United States and Canada. Participants enjoy a valuable one or two-day learning experience led by the company's technical specialists and scientists which includes in-depth technical training, product information and troubleshooting instruction for pool and spa experts. The H₂Know course teaches students how to recommend pool and spa-care systems and products, as well as offer applicable maintenance solutions based upon individual conditions.

"Continuing our pool and spa-care education is always on the top of our priority list," stated Scott Frain, Fronheiser General Manager. "Our customers depend on us to provide the perfect pool-care prescription every time so we are going to make sure that we always have the most up-to-date information and resources available to provide them with the information they need."

According to its website, BioGuard and its Dealers attribute their collective success to simplified pool and spa care as well as sustaining expertise and innovation in the industry. The company earned its reputation through constant technological improvements, extensive research and innovation, and superior customer service.
